

Training Leaders of Cadets

9-11 March 2012

Vandenberg AFB, CA 93437

Training Leaders of Cadets (TLC) course. It prepares seniors to lead cadets at the unit level. TLC is administered at the group level or higher. Students must complete 80% of the course to graduate.

During TLC, you will:

- Learn how the Cadet Program should be implemented at the squadron level
- Trade success stories with leaders from other squadrons
- Gain practical tools you can use in your unit's Cadet Program.

Prerequisites. To foster a learning environment that encourages open discussion among the adults who lead cadets, only senior members are eligible to participate in TLC. Because TLC assumes a basic familiarity with CAP, students should arrive at TLC having already completed Level I in the senior member professional development program.

How to Register. The cost of course is $35.00 to cover expenses. The billeting will be available for Friday and Saturday nights, depending on your arrival. You will need to make your own reservations for Vandenberg Lodging under Civil Air Patrol. Call reservations at (805) 606-1844, rooms are $34.75 to $39.00 per night. Students will go to lodging for keys when you arrive at checkin after 1400 hours (Bldg 13005, Oregon Ave). CAP ID is required for the event and will be checked at "CHECK IN." Transportation for aircraft landing in Lompoc or Santa Maria Airports (Only) with advance notice, for all other airports must provide your own transportation. Local unit vans are needed to help transport personnel to and from the flight line and Lodging. Saturday evening a BBQ will be provided for an additional $10, separate check. (Weather Provided) Please ensure that registration is separate from BBQ. You can call Lt Col Lisa Tuggle at (805) 478-2438 if you have any questions.

Each class is limited to 20 students on "first received" basis. Course payment is required with your CAWG 150 application and registration slip below. It is highly recommended you submit as soon as possible to assure your place in a class. Registrations will only be accepted until the classes are full and not after 1 March 2012. Refunds will be made for cancellations if the request is received by the finance officer before 28 Feb 12. If cancellations are not made prior to 28 Feb 12 registrations being held will be contacted and offered the vacated seats.
